

Greater Farallones National Marine Sanctuary & San Francisco Zoo Present:

HUMPBACK SOIRÉE

Saturday, April 4, 2020 7-9:30pm

San Francisco Zoo, 2945 Sloat Blvd., San Francisco

RECEPTION 7-8 PM

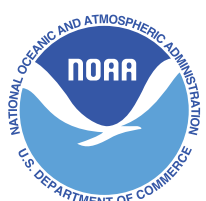

- COOL SCIENCE ACTIVITIES
- VIRTUAL REALITY
- PRINTMAKING
- NO HOST BAR
- MUSIC

LECTURE AT 8 PM

Photo by Ed Lyman/NOAA Fisheries. permit #14682-38079

HUMPBACK WHALE SONGS AND THE SEARCH FOR ALIEN INTELLIGENCE

The study of animal communication challenges our ideas of intelligence and informs our search for life in the universe. Among the most fascinating of vocalizations are the songs and sounds of humpback whales. Laurance Doyle, Ph.D, Research Scientist, with SETI Institute will share his work studying humpbacks to uncover the communications that exist throughout Planet Earth – and beyond at the 8 pm lecture.

GREATER FARALLONES
ASSOCIATION

TICKETS $20

farallones.org/events/#register

Contact: sheintzelman@farallones.org

Age minimum 16, space is limited

Public transit or ridesharing encouraged

Free parking